1

THE CLEAN SEA

Mediterranean Waters - Level 1

Level Description

Turquoise waters, tranquility, and first steps. Shores lined with seaweed, coral, and floating buoys. The perfect place to learn.

Difficulty: 1/5 | Speed: 1.5-3 | Enemies: HP 1 | Set: 80 points

Historical Note

The Mediterranean Sea (Mare Nostrum) - 2.5 million km². For the Romans, it was the center of the world. Trade routes connected Rome with Egypt, Greece, Iberia, and Carthage.

Seaweed and coral on the shores aren't just decoration. In ancient times, reefs were a serious danger for ships.

Shore Decorations

Seaweed - green stalks swaying in the waves

Buoys - red floating markers

Coral - red reef formations

2

BANKS OF THE TIBER

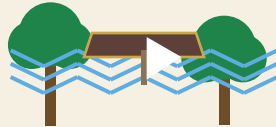

Heart of Rome - Level 2

Level Description

Green banks of the Tiber River. Trees, bushes, and ruins of ancient temples visible.

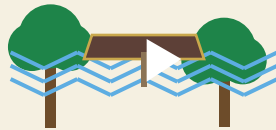

Difficulty: 2/5 | Speed: 2-4 | Enemies: HP 1 | Set: 200 points

Historical Note

The Tiber (405 km) is Italy's fourth longest river. Rome grew on seven hills along its banks.

Legend of Romulus and Remus: infants were thrown into the Tiber, but a she-wolf found and nursed them. Thus Rome was born!

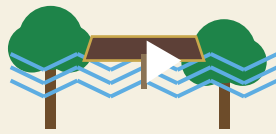

Shore Decorations

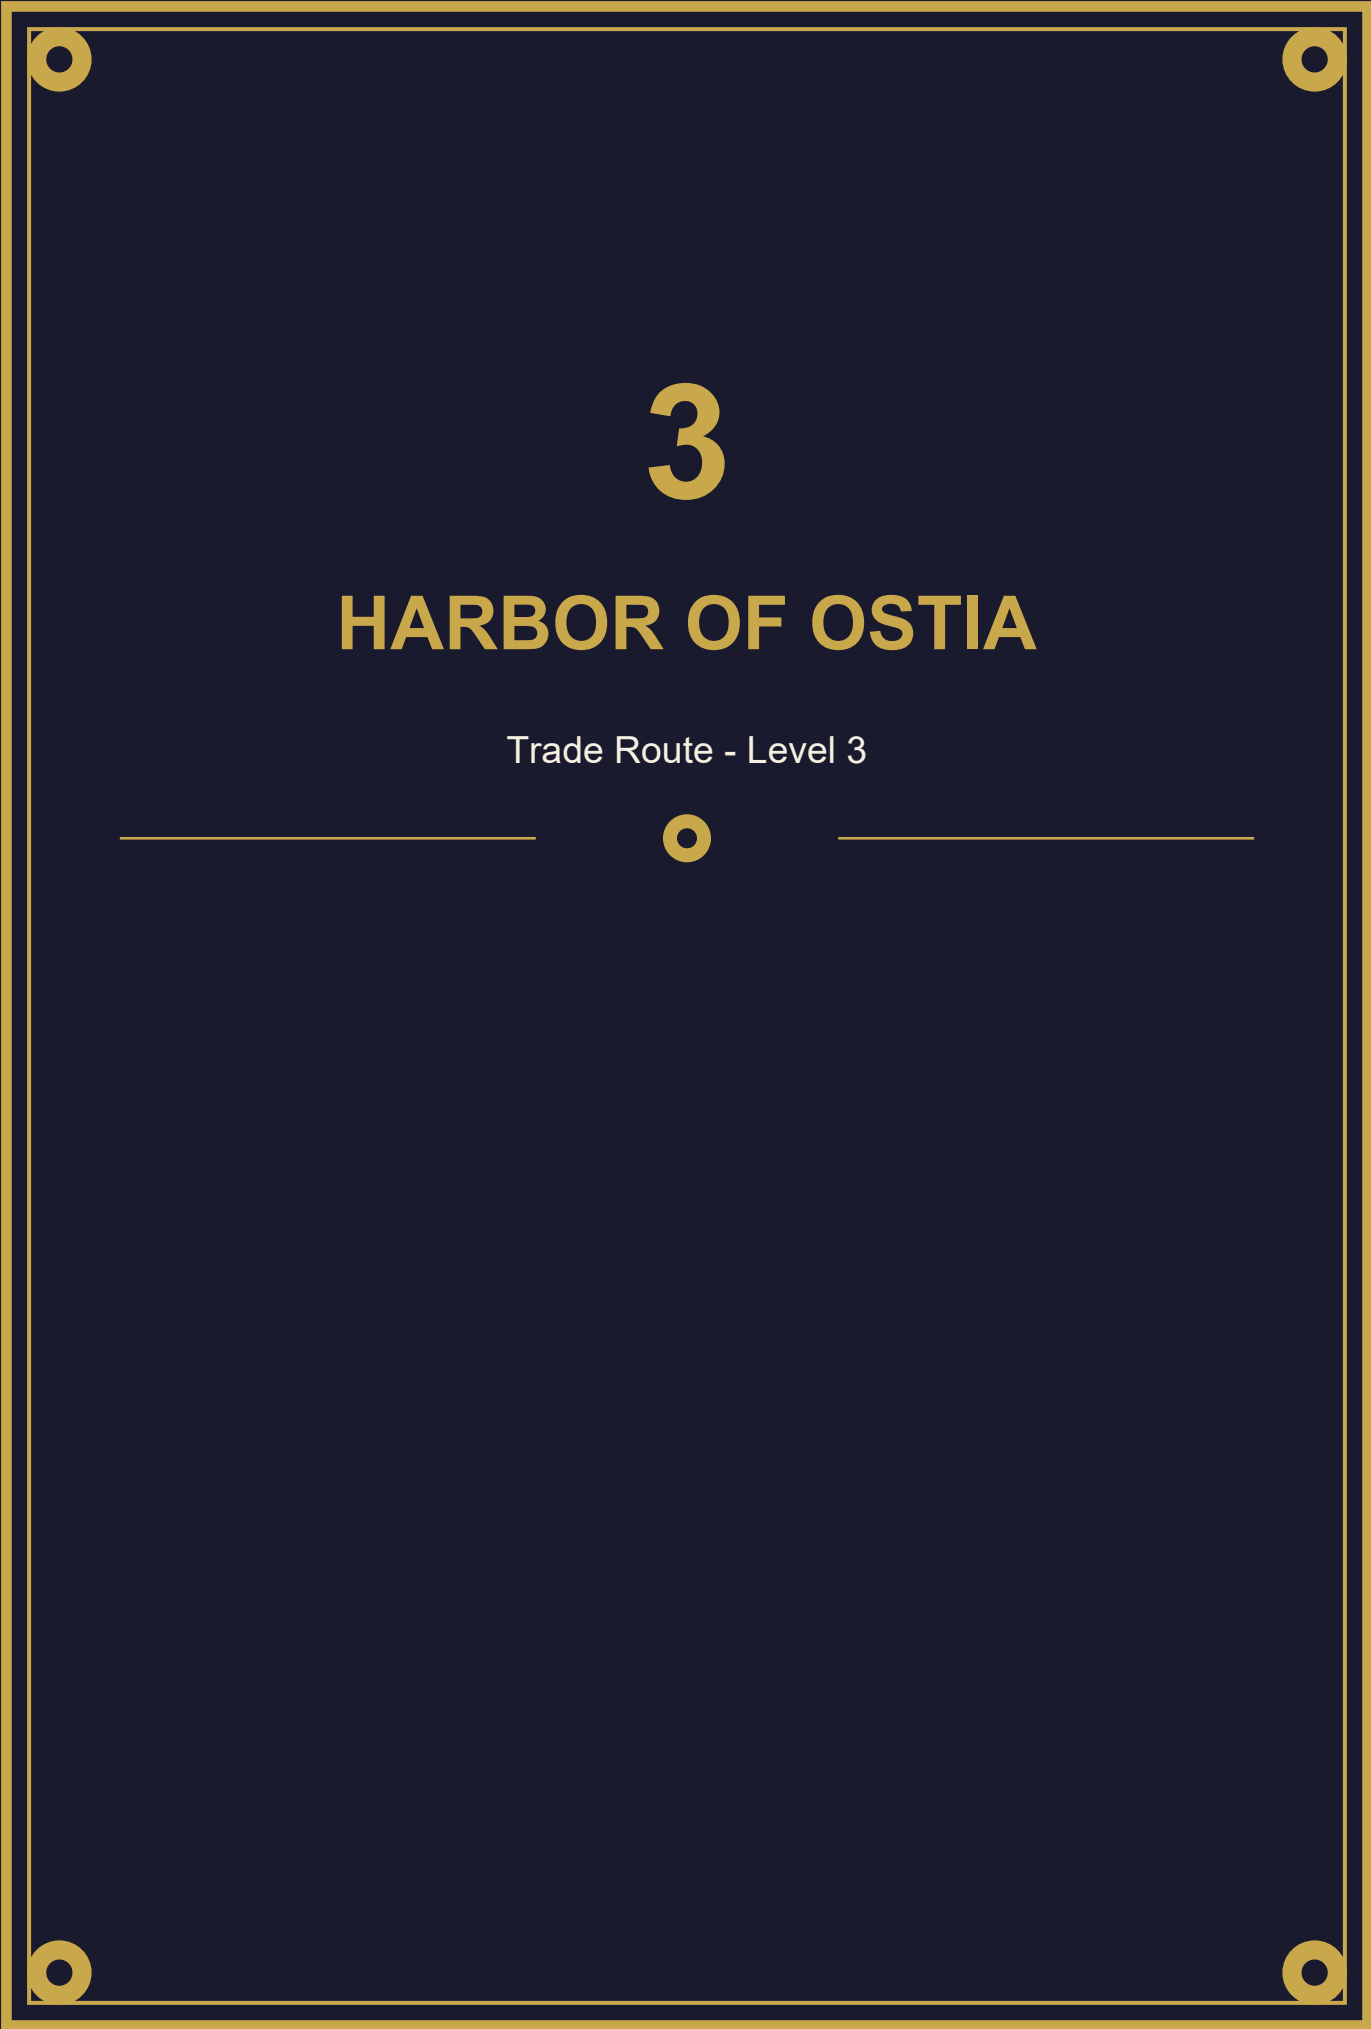

Trees - lush green crowns on brown trunks

Bushes - thickets right at the water's edge

Ruins - stone columns and walls of ancient buildings

Grass - individual grass stems on the shore

3

HARBOR OF OSTIA

Trade Route - Level 3

Level Description

A trading harbor with docks, barrels, and nets. More coins, but enemies are cleverer.

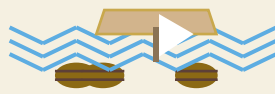

Difficulty: 3/5 | Speed: 2.2-4.5 | Enemies: HP 2 | Set: 350 points

Historical Note

Ostia was Rome's port, founded in the 4th century BC. The name comes from the Latin 'ostium' - mouth (of the river).

Barrels on the shores are standard containers for wine and olive oil. Romans called them 'dolia' (large) and 'amphorae' (clay).

Shore Decorations

Barrels - wooden barrels with metal hoops

Crates - wooden cargo bundles

Dock posts - wooden pilings with stone caps

Nets - fishing nets on posts

4

FORTRESS OF ROME

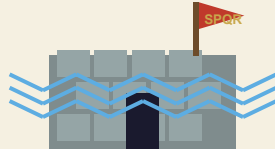

Legion Walls - Level 4

Level Description

Stone fortress walls with arches, guard towers, SPQR banners.

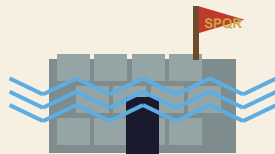

Difficulty: 3/5 | Speed: 2.5-5 | Enemies: HP 2 | Set: 520 points

Historical Note

SPQR - Senatus Populusque Romanus (Senate and People of Rome). This motto adorned all state buildings of Rome.

Roman fortresses (castra) were built to a standard plan: rectangular shape with four gates and a moat around the walls.

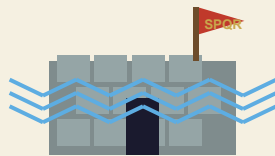

Shore Decorations

Walls - stone masonry with arches and gates

Towers - watchtowers with battlements

SPQR Banners - red flags of the Roman Republic

5

PYRAMIDS OF EGYPT

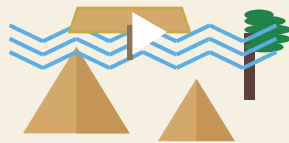

Secrets of the Nile - Level 5

Level Description

Sandy shores of the Nile, great pyramids, palms, and cacti.

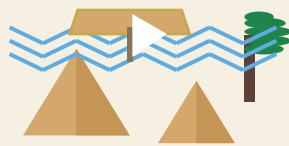

Difficulty: 4/5 | Speed: 2.8-5.5 | Enemies: HP 2 | Set: 700 points

Historical Note

The Great Pyramid of Giza is the only surviving Wonder of the Ancient World. Height: 146 m, built around 2560 BC.

The Romans conquered Egypt in 30 BC when Octavian defeated Cleopatra and Mark Antony.

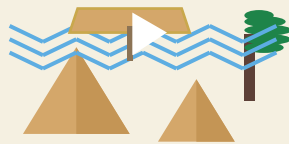

Shore Decorations

Pyramids - triangular stone structures with shaded faces

Palms - brown trunks with green fan crowns

Cacti - green thorny plants with branches

Sand dunes - light sandy shallows

6

ANCIENT RUS

Forests and Rivers - Level 6

Level Description

White birches, wooden izbas, fences, and churches with golden domes.

Difficulty: 4/5 | Speed: 3-5.5 | Enemies: HP 3 | Set: 900 points

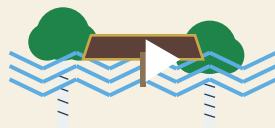

Historical Note

Ancient Rus (9th-13th centuries) - an East Slavic state. Capital: Kiev, 'mother of Russian cities'.

The birch is the symbol of Rus. White bark was used for making dishes, shoes (lapti), and even boats (bark boats).

Wooden architecture - Russian masters built temples without a single nail.

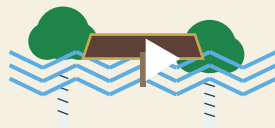

Shore Decorations

Birches - white trunks with black stripes, green crowns

Izbas - wooden houses with triangular roofs and chimneys

Fences - wooden palisades from vertical stakes

Churches - white walls, dark roofs, golden dome-crosses

7

FINAL BATTLE

The Last Trial - Level 7

Level Description

All shores mix together: trees, pyramids, birches, fortresses.

Difficulty: 5/5 | Speed: 3.5-6 | Enemies: HP 3 | Set: infinity

Survival Strategy

Maximum speed on the final level. Enemies appear very frequently with 3 HP.

Use the ram only when you're sure of a hit.

Collect coins - they appear less often, but every point matters.

Congratulations!

If you've reached the final level - you're a true warrior of Rome!

The Empire is proud of you, Captain!
